“Jesus is athirst for souls. He wants to enrich them with the fullness of His gifts and if He is in want of anything, it is of generous hearts... He urges us to go to Him so that He may come to us. Who would not answer His tender invitation? The soul which has received Him, possesses all good; it carries a divine fire which will consume all its earthly desires....

Your banner is the adorable heart of Jesus: you must never forsake it. Love and thanksgiving ought to unceasingly unite you to Him by such strong bonds that nothing in this world be capable to break them.”
