

Mount St. Charles and Brother Martin Students Spend Mardi Gras Week on Navajo Reservation

During a week when most students are out celebrating, eighteen students from Mount St. Charles and Brother Martin traveled to the Navajo Reservation to live, work, and pray with the Brothers of the Sacred Heart and Navajo people.

Students and staff from Mount St. Charles Academy (Woonsocket, RI) spent the week at St. Anne's Mission in Klagetoh, AZ. and those from Brother Martin High School (New Orleans, LA) stayed and worked with Brothers at St. Michael Indian School.

The two schools came together for supper and prayer one evening and for Ash Wednesday services the next night.

